

Legislative Day 2011 is an opportunity to show legislators that the Arkansas Hospitality Association (AHA) and its members are more committed than ever to protecting and promoting the food, lodging and travel industry. With 100,000 employees throughout the Natural State, our industry is a strong one. Despite AHA's past victories, 2011 remains full of challenges. Legislative Day 2011 is the most important step you can take to help us continue our success.

Each year, AHA hosts Legislative Day, giving our hospitality industry the opportunity to speak with a unified voice on pressing policy issues of the day. Our past political successes make AHA an important voice in the Capitol.

This is your chance to join our industry including restaurants and lodging and travel properties, throughout the state and bring one clear and powerful message to the state Capitol in Little Rock.

Legislative Day 2011 activities include a Legislative Issues Briefing on topics, and also includes presentations by invited speakers who will share insight about political landscape of Arkansas. During the afternoon, Legislative Day 2011 attendees will visit the Capitol for meetings with their elected legislators and to watch the proceedings.
